

Aircraft liveries

EULA
2016

TOGA
projects

Copyright & End User License Agreement

This file or any of the contents of this package may not be redistributed anywhere without written permission from myself.

- This aircraft repaint is freeware.
There must be zero monetary transfers for access to this or any of our repaints unless you received our written permission.
- This file may not be bundled with any other software for sale, including 3rd party sounds and panel packages for sale unless you received our written permission. This file may also not be burned on any media for sale unless you received our written permission.
As an exception, the official iFly team and Flight1 team is fully authorized to use our iFly 747 v2 repaints.
- All logos are property of their respective owners and are reproduced for artistic and illustrative purposes only.
- This file cannot be uploaded to any other site but Flight1 library, Avsim Library and Flightsim.com library and can be redistributed only by a TOGA projects member.

Downloading, installing, and/or using the contents or any of the contents of this package for any purpose you agree to the End User License Agreement (EULA).

Support

In order to get support from the TOGA projects team, please address your message to the following mail adress togapjcts@gmail.com, or from our facebook page on the following address facebook.com/togapjcts/, or even from the contact page on our website togapjcts/contact.

We will give you an answer as soon as possible.

Donation

Texturing takes a lot of time and as a hobby we cannot spend much of our free time in painting or texturing.

If you or would like to see more repaints or if you simply like our job please consider to make a donation of any size you want by clicking the donation button on our website page : togapjcts/donate

Your donations will allow us to enhance our projects and website in order to give you the best textures as possible.

Thank you all for your strong support which is much appreciated by all of our members!